1. Viewed on approach from the train station, Halldis's most significant city project to date makes a dramatic and extremely well defined entrance to the public realm, responding appropriately to the scale of the existing buildings and creating an extensive south-facing public space.

4. Looking back toward the train station, the building appears below the 16m high canopy that demarcates the Science Centre's principal public entrance.

1. entrance and ticket
2. pre-paid entrance
3. bars
4. express bar
5. cloakroom
6. north space
7. workshop
8. shop
9. lockers
10. toilets
11. restaurant
12. exhibition space
13. laboratory
14. offices